

MURDER OF CARRIE BROWN

If "Jack the Ripper" Did It, Then He and "Frenchy No. 1" Are the Same Man.

Evidence That Makes It Nearly Certain That Inspector Byrnes's Prisoner Did the Atrocious Deed—Spattered with Blood.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Inspector Byrnes this morning made public a statement to the effect that the man known as "Frenchy No. 1" was ascertained to have slept in the East-river Hotel on the night of the murder. The murdered woman, Carrie Brown, occupied room No. 31, while Frenchy No. 1 slept in room No. 32. On the evening of the night of the murder Carrie Brown was seen going into the hotel in company with a strange man. This man left the place before midnight. It is believed that Frenchy No. 1 then went to Carrie Brown's room; that they quarreled, and that the result of the row was the murder of the woman. The belief that the murderer has been found is substantiated by the following facts:

When Frenchy No. 1 had completed his murderous work he reentered the hall and entered the room No. 31. In that room he left the evidence of his guilt. When the police made their investigation traces of blood were found on every side. The only chair in the room contained a pool of blood, and the murderer over it from the clothes the murderer wore, he having sat down upon it when he entered the room. The blood clothes were found to be covered with the blood, the murderer sometimes during the night having thrown himself upon the bed. His stockings, having removed his shoes to do his bloody work, were soaked with blood and his clothing was also covered with blood. On the walls and ceiling of the little room many small spots of blood were found, the man having evidently entered the room with his hands and face bloody and in his desire to remove it had shaken and snatched his hands and fingers, thus liberally distributing the blood about the room. When the fellow was arrested Inspector Byrnes examined his hands and finger-nails. The latter he carefully scraped and found plain and distinct traces of human blood. This positively established the fact, the scarpings and dirt found under the nails were submitted to a chemical analysis. On the morning of the time the man was removed to police headquarters, but all have been made a few statements, but all have been so very contradictory that the police have been able to make but little use of them.

Inspector Byrnes this afternoon substantiated the story of the man who was taken to the identity of the Ripper. The Inspector does not say positively that Frenchy No. 1 is the murderer, but he gave a strong chain of circumstantial evidence that leaves no doubt but that he was the man who committed the atrocious crime. He discovered that Frenchy No. 1 was with the woman "Shakespeare" on Wednesday night, and slept in the East-river Hotel. During the following day he was seen with her company nearly all day. On Thursday night about midnight "Shakespeare" left the bar-room where she and Frenchy were drinking, and he followed her. He was seen to go up stairs with a strange man. Soon afterward Frenchy asked for a room, and was assigned to room No. 32, directly opposite that occupied by "Shakespeare."

Late this afternoon a mysterious prisoner was brought before District Attorney Nichol. Later Frenchy was removed to police headquarters. This man in all particular answers to the description of the man who rented the room at the East-river Hotel with the Brown woman. It was afterward ascertained that his name is Joseph Franks, and that he is an Arabian.

Here He Is Again.
WASHINGTON, April 30. A man answering, in some particulars, the description furnished the police of Washington of "Jack the Ripper" was taken to the police here awaiting the arrival of the New York authorities. The prisoner gave his name as John Hughes and his place of residence as New York, but did not give any further information.

SKIRMISH WITH BANDITS.
One of the Most Notorious of the Cuban Brigands Killed in a Brush with the Troops.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Havana correspondence of April 23 says that no one has yet claimed the $30,000 reward offered for the capture of Manuel Garcia, the celebrated Cuban bandit. Robberies, murders and abductions—all attributed to the great chief and his band, have been frequent of late, and active measures for his capture have been forced upon the government. An ambush was prepared April 15 and elaborate plans laid to capture the robbers. The band had recently been operating in the vicinity of Matanzas and had accumulated considerable booty, chiefly Spanish. It was known that among the bandits, besides the leader, were such eminent members of the brigand fraternity as Antonio Mayol, Victor, Jose and Antonio Cruz, Gallo Roas and B. Plasencia. The officers took up a position on the road leading to Esmeraldas and awaited the coming of the robbers, who were known to be traveling in that direction. They had not waited long before nine horsemen came around a curve of the road and entered the plantation. They were ordered to halt but did not reply. The officer in command ordered his men to give the order to shoot when a volley of rifle balls was fired into the midst of the soldiers. The troops replied at once. The bandits fired again and the troops also fired as fast as their horses could travel. The troops, being on foot, could not pursue them but fired several times. It was then found that Antonio Mayol, one of the bandits, lay dead on the road. A trail of blood was discovered leading from the plantation to a rocky hillock and to a small stream, where it was lost, proving that one of the bandits is wounded. Of the soldiers, one was killed and several wounded seriously. Mayol's death relieves the residents of Matanzas of the outrages of one of the bandits most feared. The bandits, by partially avenged the brutal murder by bandits, on March 31, of Dionisio Menendez and his wife, an old couple who lived on the outskirts of the small village of Santa Rosa.

Storm Causes a Panic at a Circus.
CLEVELAND, April 30.—A storm struck Tiffin, O., this afternoon. Sells Bros.' circus was exhibiting at the fair grounds. The wind blew down and destroyed all the tents, but fortunately the main performance was over. There was a panic among the few persons remaining, and the animals, the menagerie were wild with terror.
